

6th ECNP Young Polymer Scientists Meeting

San Sebastian, Spain 1-2 October 2018

We are pleased to invite you to the 6th ECNP Young Polymer Scientists Meeting on Nanostructured Polymers and Nanocomposites. This conference continues the well-established tradition of international conferences for young researchers started with the European Network of Excellence NANOFUN-POLY in Dresden, Madrid, Lyon and Prague. The conference covers polymer science from fundamentals to applications: synthesis of polymers and macromolecular architectures, characterization, processing, as well as theory of polymers and nanocomposites. The meeting will take place the days before the 10th ECNP Conference. A short course in basic aspects of polymer science such as polymer characterization, industrial polymers and new applications in medicine and energy will be included.

TOPICS

- Progress in polymer synthesis
- Structure of nanostructured polymers and nanocomposites
- Advanced processing and characterization techniques
- Modelling of processes and properties
- Application of functional polymers in energy, optoelectronics, sensing, biomedicine and others.
- Sustainable polymer chemistry (renewable resources, polymer recycling, biodegradable polymers)

CHAIRPERSONS

Haritz Sardon (Polymat, UPV/ EHU), Spain
Jaime Martin (Polymat, UPV/ EHU), Spain
Debora Puglia (ECNP/UNIPG/INSTM) Italy

PROGRAM

The format of the congress will allow all young researchers to present results in oral talks. English will be the official language.

VENUE

The Conference will be held at Palacio Miramar in San Sebastian.
